

COCO

Basking in the sun on cool days, belly rubs, riding in the car and naps are my most luxurious guilty pleasures. I have been told that I am one of the most low maintenance pitties you will ever come across. I don't need long walks nor runs but I wouldn't mind a yard (or someplace) to stretch my legs every once in a while. My best hobby is sleeping, and if I may say so myself, I am actually a very gorgeous diva in person. I would really like to find my forever home really soon!!
